NATIONAL MUSEUM OF MEXICAN ART

The National Museum of Mexican Art opened its doors to the public in 1987 in a boathouse in a park. Today, the Museum is the most prominent Latino cultural organization in the country with 150,000 annual visitors, a 10,000- piece Permanent Collection and two educational programs that have been recognized by the White House.

The National Museum of Mexican Art is known for its outstanding work in the visual and performing arts and in arts education. In fact, the Museum has exhibited more than 150 shows, including 20 traveling exhibitions. It was the first Latino arts organization in the United States to obtain accreditation and remains the only dedicated to Mexican art and culture.

Our mission is to stimulate knowledge and appreciation of Mexican art and culture from both sides of the border through a significant permanent collection of Mexican art, rich visual and performing arts programs, high quality arts education programs and resources and professional development of Mexican artists.

The annual Gala de Arte is critical in generating funding to support this mission.

Thank you for considering a sponsorship.
